FIFTY YEARS

OH, IT WAS NOT LONG AGO I COULD HEAR
THE CLATTER OF WOMEN'S SHOES, I COULD HEAR THE LAUGHTER, I COULD HEAR THE SORROW. AS THE YEAR GOES BY, I CAN SEE
THE END. I CAN HEAR THE BUILDING'S CRY OF PAIN AS IT KNOWS TO ...

... PLEASE DON'T TAKE MY SPECIAL PEOPLE AWAY. AS I WALK DOWN THE HALLS, TEARS IN MY EYES, I FEEL PROUD TO BE OF THIS SCHOOL. I SHALL NEVER FEEL THIS STRONGLY FOR ANOTHER. I CANNOT IMAGINE THIS SCHOOL VACANT OR WITHOUT ITS SPECIAL PEOPLE. THE BUILDING MAY LIVE BUT SHALL NEVER KNOW BETTER PEOPLE THAN THOSE OF JAMES MONROE!

Students were able to enjoy a variety of assemblies this year. They were entertained by such groups as Heritage, twin brothers who sang folk music, and the drama class, who presented seasonal theme skits. Such speakers as Senator Mark Hatfield, the BSU, and a man explaining the complexities of handling foods entertained the student body. Models from Wendy Ward and a dermatologist helped inform students of present trends in appearance. Students also rallied at a board meeting in support of their school, uniting the whole student body in a common cause.

Mr. Abrahamson coached the soccer team again this year. This was the second year for a soccer team at Monroe. There were 16 girls on the team. Practice was held every day from 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. The uniform for team members was blue shorts and light blue long sleeved shirts.

Three girls from the team were chosen for the PIL All Stars. They were Mary Shea, Mary Parker, and Dixie Prater.

The varsity volleyball team was coached by Ms. Cook and the J.V. team was coached by Mr. Schnur. The varsity team had nine members, and the J.V. team had 12 members. The uniforms were navy blue shorts and light blue tops. Both teams practiced for two hours after school every day. The Majors did better their record over the past two years during this season.

BASKETBALL AND SWIM TEAMS

This was the fourth year for PIL basketball. Mr. Luizzi coached the varsity team and Miss Fox coached the junior varsity team. Out of 17 games, the Monroe record was 12 wins and 5 losses. The team placed third in the PIL. Plans were already underway for the merging of the Washington and Monroe teams before the end of the year.

This year's swim team consisted of 15 members, including Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. Ms. Layfield was the coach. The captain of the team was Eileen Cebula.

Practice was held at Buckman Pool from 6:30 to 8:00 in the morning. The meets were held at Lewis and Clark College and Columbia Pool. The season began on November 14 and ended on February 3. The swim team won one meet and lost five. They lost by two or three points throughout the season. It was the first time out for every member except Terry Lund. Ms. Layfield has said that this years swim team was the best in three years.

The Major's track team consisted of about 14 members. The coaches were Ms. Cook and Mr. Abrahamson. Due to foul weather and the small number of team members, the track team was able to win only two meets. Outstanding competitors, no one made it to the state meet. The team members were K. Dix, M. Woodley, M. Shea, J. Menashe, D. Cooper, K. Bell, T. Lund, P. Spieler, S. Caudle, L. Day, B. Moe, C. Perry, A. McKinley, A. Shamdin, and J. Wood as manager.

The softball team, coached by Ms. McGinn, ended the 1978 season with 4 wins and 5 losses. Rain caused many of the games to be canceled. The team showed constant improvement throughout the season. Four players were selected as PIL All-Stars. Mary Parker and Nona Axsom made first team; Veronica Green made second team; and Dixie Prater received honorable mention.

CLASSES

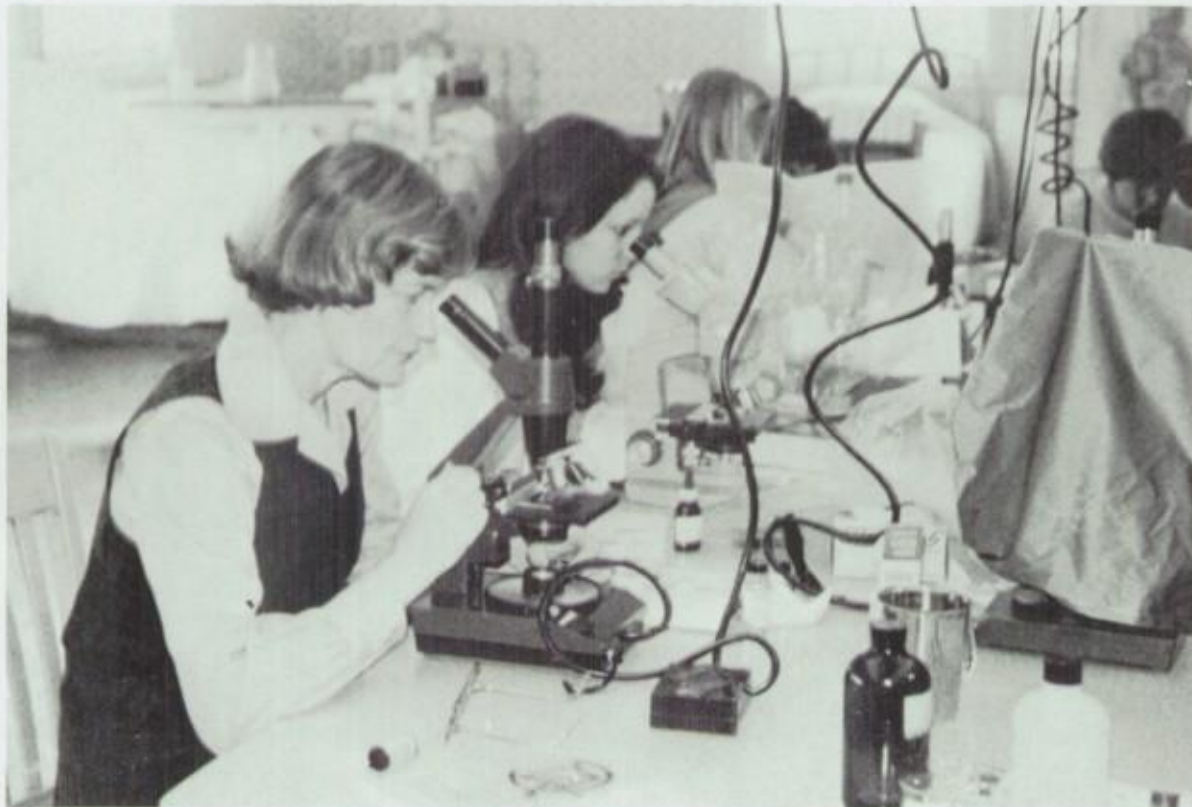

MEDICAL AND DENTAL

The Medical Major is a two-year program for juniors and seniors. Students on the junior level have the option to take Anatomy-Physiology, Nutrition, and Human Development. This prepares students for the courses when they enter school the next fall. Seniors spend two quarters at school in the classroom studying medical terminology and two quarters working in hospitals and doctor's offices. Part of the hospital training is at the U. of O. Medical school and part is at Providence Hospital.

C

A. K. Cattanach and M. Puderbaugh take blood tests during medical class. B. Mrs. Lind and C. Swan look at blood samples through the microscopes. C. A. Manning and J. Hart seem to have fun pricking each others fingers for their blood samples.

The Dental Major is open only to seniors. Seniors study preclinical dental sciences, Restorative Dentistry, and Community Health-Preventative Dentistry. Students spend the first semester in the classroom. The second semester is spent at the U. of O. Dental school and in dental laboratories and dental offices as assistants.

COMMERCIAL FOODS AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT

Child Development is a major offered on the junior and senior level. On the junior level students work with children during part of the year at school. The senior level works with children at school in the first semester and moves to work experience in child-related jobs the second semester. Both classes study the areas of marriage, pregnancy, and child development. The aim of the class is not only to help students obtain child-related jobs, but also to prepare them for parenthood.

Commercial Foods is a major open to juniors and seniors. This class trains students for a variety of jobs in the foods industry. Students learn how to prepare and serve food attractively, study food cost, food service, and how to plan and cook luncheons. The class traveled to the airport and the Jantzen Beach Thunderbird on field trips. They enjoyed such speakers as an ex-restaurant owner, a cake decorator, and a flower arranger.

A. K. Sonies seems very enthusiastic about cleaning up her mess. B. M. Guimont, S. Haggert, and R. Gee prepare a table for a special luncheon. C. R. Prater demonstrates how to prepare vegetables.

ENGLISH, DRAMA MATH AND SOCIAL STUDIES

Three years of English are required at Monroe. On the junior level classes are divided into college bound and career classes. Two college bound classes are offered on the senior level.

Drama is an elective offered in the Arts department. There are two classes offered, beginning and advanced. Students in the class presented holiday shows and two major plays to the students this year.

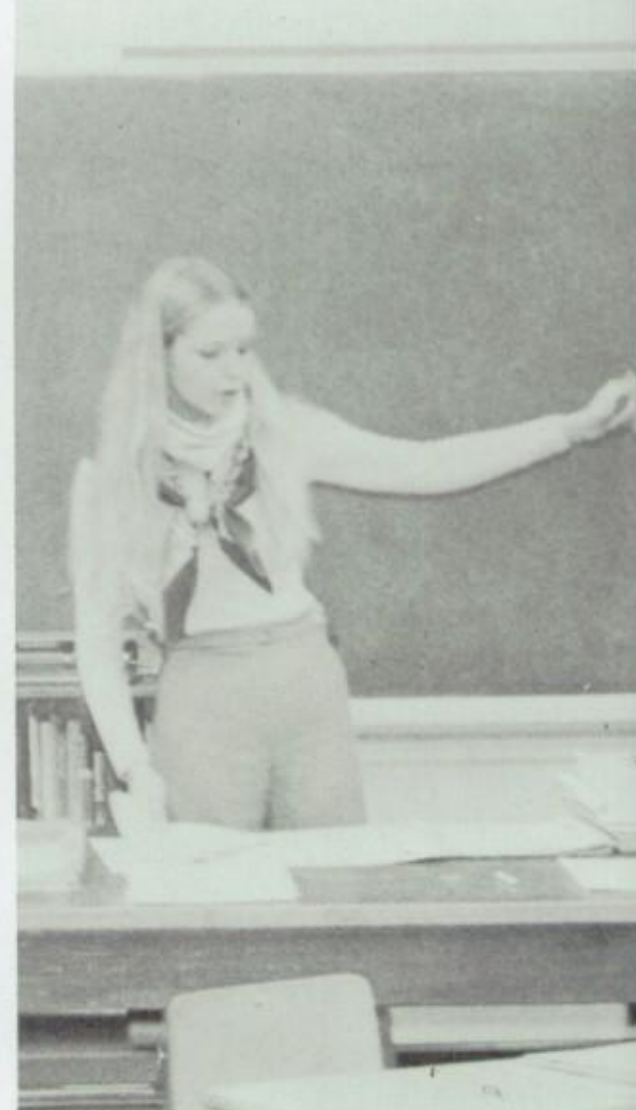

Math is required of all students at the freshman level. Elective math classes are available to students on the other three levels, ranging from Algebra to Senior Math. Math students participated in a city-wide math test at mid-year and a national math exam in the spring.

Two years of social studies are required at Monroe. The main objectives of this class are to familiarize students with U.S. History and to help them understand the working system of our government. Students also study psychology during the year.

A

A. D. Tichgelaar, B. Spires, and M. Woods practice a sketch for their drama presentation. B. Ms. Bidwell uses grand gestures to illustrate a point to her English class. C. Mr. Emmons is surrounded by his adoring class of C. Garlington, D. Krum, D. Abbot, and K. McCoy.

SCIENCE, P.E., AND HEALTH

One year of science is required of students at Monroe, but upper division classes are also available to students. Biology and Chemistry students are able to learn a great deal because of the fine facilities available. Anatomy-Physiology is also available for medical majors.

Physical education is required of all freshmen. Upper division courses are offered to interested students. Sophomores are required to take health. Here students study grooming nutrition, and driver education. The total two-year program helps students in a wide area of physical growth.

ART AND SPECIAL EDUCATION

Monroe offers two levels of art, general and advanced. The advanced art class visited downtown galleries, Timberline Lodge, the Portland Art Museum, and the Rose Festival Art Exhibit at Meier & Frank. During the second semester an Artist in Residence, Linda Johnson, worked with Mr. Schnur in his classes.

Monroe is privileged to have a special program for the deaf. The program has four students enrolled and is headed by Ms. Diane Layfield. Students work side by side with other students in most of their classes. One period a day they are in room 309 with Ms. Layfield, strengthening their skills.

PRINCESS MARJORIE JANAC

ROSE FESTIVAL 1978

This year's Rose Festival selection was the most flamboyant ever presented. The stage was elaborately decorated with baskets full of long-stemmed red roses.

The girls glowed with a special excitement that was all their own. When the girls were escorted down the aisle, the crowd went wild, giving each girl a standing ovation.

When the girls were finally seated, Mr. Jones escorted Sheila Sylvester to the stage.

She was representing last year's princess, Cheri Zimmerman, who was unable to attend due to illness.

The envelopes with the 1978 Monroe Rose Festival Princess were then handed out. As the girls opened them, they were filled with a thrill of excitement. The card inside read Princess Marjorie Janac."

After the audience found out who had won, they gave their approval by giving Princess Marjorie a standing ovation.

Dear Students:

Thank you for having selected us as your official photographer. We have endeavored to justify your faith in us by doing our best to please you. We hope that you like us as well as we liked working for you.

In the future, when you have need for good photographs taken by a professional photographer, whether it be a portrait, special pictures for special events, a family group, or formals or candid when you are married, feel free to tell us your requirements. We have an especially fine service on wedding portraits.

We shall look forward to seeing you when you again need photographs taken by a professional photographer.

Let us again express our appreciation for the fine cooperation of the entire student body. It has made our work with you very pleasant.

A. L. Bartholomew sure looks like Scarlet! B. K. Bothwell and C. Hammond sure look busy.

Much time and effort was put into the production of this book, not only the editors, but also Mrs. Handy and our yearbook staff. It was done for the enjoyment of everyone. We would like to thank Mrs. Handy's husband, Kenneth Handy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Paffrath for their time. We would also like to thank Kennell-Ellis for the fine color section in our book.

Being editor of the last James Monroe High School yearbook has literally been a milestone in my life. It has begun an interest in the field of Journalism for me. Thanks everyone for a great year.

*Sincerely,
Laurie Spencer

To a nice, alaroud, junior
I wish you a good time at wa-mo high. You're always looking good and besides that you're a beautiful person. Love Don Herwick 179
